Art Unit: 1724

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 37 is again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is not clear what material is represented by the term "bio-core" (claim 37, lines 3-4).

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 37 is again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which Applicant regards as the invention. The material represented by the term "bio-core" is not readily apparent.

Claims 21-27, 29 and 31-36 are allowed because the references of record do not teach or fairly suggest a pond filter of the type recited wherein a flow barrier is disposed between a filter screen and an inlet opening of a flushing channel.

Applicant's arguments filed October 20, 2006 have been noted and carefully considered but are not deemed to be persuasive of patentability. Applicant argues that the term "bio-core" is an accepted and recognized term in the art, and submits printouts of websites that utilize this term. It is pointed out, however, that none of these printouts is dated prior to the filing date of this application; and therefore, Applicant has not established that this term was known at the time of the invention. Furthermore, based on the capitalization of at least the first letter of this term in each of the above noted printouts, it appears that this term represents a trademark instead of an actual material.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
